Description of this screensaver: To the astonishment of many, people still love cats a lot. The cat is considered to be a man's best friend. Why not choose cats instead of dogs who are said to be the man's best friend. Compared with dogs, cats don't have to be walked in the park every day, nor require a lot of toys and auxiliary objects, like harnesses, leashes and collars. They eat lesser food and don't really need too much attention, as they sleep most of the day. One of the most common reasons for the affection is the cute appearance of a kitten. And so, it is interesting to see how such a small animal can turn into a powerful weapon for us. As soon as it takes the first steps, it becomes a kind of little devil. Such a tiny thing, easily seduces the mouse and rat, that drives them away from the owner's company. This is the great mystery of the cat world, which appears like a little fairy out of the clouds, but his so powerful claws bring the luck and bounty in the life of the owner. Now you can combine your interest in the cat world and your desire to show off to your friends, with the help of this latest screensaver. This is a wonderful opportunity to have fun with kitties on your desktop. Kittens Screensaver is a free cat screensaver that brings 8 different kitties to your desktop to show you a
