The Legend is Unfolding. Through your own deeds and stories, the world of Elden Ring becomes a reality. The idea behind the game is to take a step into a fantasy world where the Untermark and battles for powers occur. You can create your own story or choose one of the 13 stories that are told. The next story begins once you progress to the next area. Basic Scenario A girl named Eirika runs away from the castle in the south of the continent in despair. Upon a fateful day, she meets this man named Lisanna. The two of them run into a mysterious woman named Argus, who has an odd kind of soul. 01. Characters Rise of the Elden Lords Play as the 19th person, Eirika. Fitting her in with the others, she is a well-built young woman with long, golden brown hair. While her opponent was a lowly man whom no one would listen to, she was simply mistaken for a servant girl by the group of men. Still, she is incredibly happy to find that the man she fell for is none other than the Lisanna. 02. Story ----- An Elden Ring is born in the Lands Between, where the legendary Elden saga is reborn. In the world of the Elden Rings, a series of complex myths and legends are swirling around... but did you know that in the history of the Elden Rings, none of them are true? A strange alchemy spread across the lands. It is said to be the reason behind the creation of the different races. And a battle ensued, called the “War of the Races”. A long war that changed the world. “And those who suffer the most are the elves. But their fate will finally change, though not with the understanding of the stories we are told...” Player 1: A man called Dolph, the self-proclaimed “Hero of the Elves”, returns from the war,

Cannibalism Eats An Autumn Tale The story “Cannibalism in the Hall of Anatomy” is a dystopian story that deals with the issues of good and evil, as well as the theme of cannibalism. The main character Jessica does not want to be a cannibal, because she loves her friends and family, but finds herself drawn to the idea when she is in the vivisection hall in the medical school. At the end of this story she is a cannibal and has murdered a real person with the instruments to be used on the dead body, she is not proud of her actions but does not regret them either. The university she attends, teaches that human anatomy is more than just dissecting a cadaver. They also dissect live human bodies, to see if one can determine something or be aware of their body. But so far no one has found a way of changing their brain structure as it has been mapped. “Our sights are only centered on a single anatomic system: the brain. But we are ignorant of the cause and effect processes that control each of the more than one hundred systems and of the direct structural basis for the cognitive...” They also have a dissection hall in the basement of the medical school. “Well, that way we can kill you and keep your body for further study.” This brings out the most outlandish part of my imagination. I like the idea of being eaten up and then resurrected. It is like a deadly game, and if I win the game, I get a meal. Jessica is aware that killing people is not right, and because of this she runs away from the un

FOR THE LOVE OF STEAMBOATERS! Check out the recent post in our featured image posts, it's A TOUCH OF A LADY! With that said, I decided to do a character's portrait of that character for a couple of reasons; number one, I LOVE that character, number two, I'd like to share that character with all of you, and number three, I know that not everyone has a lady friend, or a grand lady friend, to sit for a portrait. So, in the spirit of sharing my passion and enthusiasm for watercraft, I'm offering this lovely lady for sale; she's being offered for "FAMILY OR KIDS" or "PLAYING ABOUT" which is the wording, not mine. (Looks like when I look for pictures I pull up a lot more "porn" than I thought!) As a matter of fact, I think she's pretty darn cute, and I hope that you will too! I tried my best to represent the softness, pretty and vivacious she is, without being too cutesy. Come on down and check it out! Okay, so I'm not really sure what to make of this, but I see what the fuss is about! I'd say she's wearing a very nice tartan wool plaid top, a lovely blue skirt that has a cute little pleat in the back, and on her feet, she's wearing a nice pair of Lace-Up Riding Boots with a c/o 3" heel!Beth-elim Ammos The Beth-Elim Ammos (also known as the Beth-El) is a Jewish traditionalist conservative Zionist organization, founded on March 18, 2009. It is based in Ottawa, Ontario, Canada and in the United States, where it is a member of the Friends of Israel Movement founded by Rabbi Abraham Cooper. It advocates conservative Judaism and traditional observance, particularly in Israel and North America. The Beth-Elim Ammos also focuses attention on "the Iranian nuclear threat" and "the dangers of radical Islam", and is one of two organizations to which Jews who doubt the scale of Iran's atomic weapons program are invited to sign up. History Rabbi Avrohom Reider, leader of the Canadian branch of the Amia organisation, states that he is inspired by Rabbi Meir Kahane and Rabbi Yisroel Meir Weiss, who established the earlier Conservative movement-
